After the exhibition "Outward Expressions, Inward Reflection" by four young photographers in April 2008, Three Shadows announced the open call for the Three Shadows Photography Award and began the process of evaluating the entries and planning the exhibition. With the enthusiastic support of partner institutions and young photographers, the 2008-2009 judging and exhibition were well-received by photographers, and "Points of Impact" became the first Three Shadows Photography Award Exhibition. Over the course of "Points of Impact," "Confluence," "Myriad Visions," "Crossover," "Essential Impressions," "Formless," "Detachment," "Immeasurable," "Allegory," and "Interlink," the Three Shadows Photography Award attracted submissions from over 5,000 photographers and artists globally and helped introduce over 200 photographers and artists as finalists.

Over these ten years, we have invited to Three Shadows museum directors and curators (e.g. Simon Baker and Quentin Bajac etc.) from the art world's most important museums (including the Tate Modern in London, the Museum of Modern Art in New York, and the J. Paul Getty Museum in Los Angeles etc.) and important photographers (e.g. Hilla Becher, Candida Höfer, and Thomas Ruff etc.). The majority of them came to China for the first time in association with the prize. Together, they have participated in and witnessed the births of the stars of a new generation of Chinese photographers.

To commemorate the significance of this annual tradition, Three Shadows Photography Art Centre has organized "Ten Directions: The 10th Anniversary Exhibition of the Three Shadows Photography Award." The exhibition presents the latest work from a selection of young artists – all participants in past editions of the award. We have invited Karen Smith, Gu Zheng, Iizawa Kotaro, Tsai Meng, and other experts from China and abroad to write academic essays for the exhibition catalog. During the run of the exhibition, Three Shadows will hold a series of discussions and forums with scholars and artists to reflect upon the development of Chinese photography.

Why this ad? ▶

"Ten Directions: The 10th Anniversary Exhibition of Three Shadows Photography Award" presents the diverse photographic practices of young Chinese artists over the last ten years and a review and summary of the achievements of the Three Shadows Photography Award. We invite viewers to transcend the static definition of photography and consider the visions and emotions inspired by the medium. "Ten Directions" sets a scene, helping the audience understand how Chinese photographers and artists work with photos, moving forward and pushing boundaries.

Ciao! My name is Dominique. I'm Italian and I'm proud to be a mix. My father was an Italian chemical engineer and high school teacher with Czech and Polish heritage. My — Italian chemical engineer and high school teacher, with Greek and Polish heritage. My mother is Haitian, she was high school language teacher, with Dominican, Spanish, French, Portuguese, African and Native American heritage. Being a mix makes me appreciate to want to understand different cultures and lifestyles. I grew up in Italy, lived few years in Haiti, travel around main European capitals, lived seven years in China, six in Spain and UK. Traveling makes me feel that we can learn something from every situation in every part of the world.
